FIRST CHURCH POLICIES REGARDING WEDDINGS

All individuals wishing to utilize the sanctuary and other facilities of First Church for a wedding ceremony must conform to the policies stated herein and agree to pay the fees listed herein. Such agreement shall be indicated by signing this form and providing a deposit at the time of the request equal to one half (50%) of the total fees due for the use of First Church facilities (in the case of member/donations, a minimum of $100 will be required as deposit). Requests for reservation will not be considered or approved by the Trustees of First Church prior to the payment of such deposit. The balance of fees shall be payable no later than one month prior to the wedding date. Failure to pay the balance of fees due by the due date may result in denial of right to use the facilities. A Facility Damage deposit of $150 will be included in the total cost and will be refunded within one week after the ceremony. Any damages incurred as part of the ceremony will be deducted from this deposit. The refund will include any details of the deposit used.

ROLE OF SENIOR PASTOR

Individuals wishing to be married in First Church are required to meet with the current senior pastor of First Church prior to reserving the facilities. The senior pastor has the right to be involved in any marriage performed in First Church. Should the individuals wish to have another minister or clergy member involved in the ceremony, the senior pastor must approve such individual and involvement in advance. The senior pastor shall have the right to deny the involvement of an outside clergy or other official if he or she determines that such outside clergy or official’s involvement would be inconsistent with the mission and spirit of First Church. The senior pastor shall have the right to be involved in any marriage ceremony performed in First Church as the principal celebrant, or as a co-celebrant at his or her discretion. The Trustees shall not approve the use of the facilities until they have received from the senior pastor evidence that these requirements have been met.

ORGANIST AND OTHER MUSICIANS

The current organist of First Church shall have the right of first refusal to play at any marriage performed in First Church. No outside organist or keyboardist may be used unless the current First Church organist has been consulted and agreed. Any additional musicians or soloists to be used during the ceremony must consult with and be approved in advance by the current organist. Any costs incurred for such musicians or soloists are solely the responsibility of the bride and groom.

WEDDING COORDINATOR AND SEXTON

Individuals reserving First Church for a wedding are required to utilize and pay for the services of the wedding coordinator and sexton.

SOUND SYSTEM

No First Church sound system will be available other than the stationary pulpit microphone in the sanctuary. Any use and cost of another sound system is solely the responsibility of the bride and groom.

SANCTUARY DECORATIONS

The rules for the decoration of the Sanctuary are as follows:

The decorating of the Sanctuary shall be limited to pew bows and altar arrangements. There must be no staples or tape in the wood. Alter flowers and small arrangements cannot be wired to the candelabras. First Church does not allow tape on the walls or on the wood.

The rules for the decoration of Parish Hall for receptions are as follows:

You may not remove any posters or notices that are on the walls, however, you may cover these items with cloth, linen, etc. as long as the First Church items are not hampered or damaged in any way.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

The payment schedule (see attached sheet) for the Minister, Organist, Wedding Coordinator, and Sexton are to be paid individually. Check with the Church Office Manager for names. The full payment for these individuals is due 10 days before the wedding ceremony. For the Sanctuary and any area(s) requested for use, please make check out to First Church in Marlborough and submit to Treasurer’s Office. A 50% deposit is required to reserve the church with the balance and any other additional fees due no later than one month before the wedding ceremony.
